What is the MIC card?

The MIC card allows you to enter the Museum System of Rome for free for 12 months and offers a discount on exhibitions hosted in exhibition spaces that require separate ticketing. See complete list at miccard.roma.it/#dove

What museums are included?

- free and unlimited access to the 18 museums of the system, such as the Capitoline Museums, Trajan's Forum, Museum of Rome, etc.
- free access to 25 archaeological and historical-artistic sites, such as Circus Maximus, Mausoleum of Augustus, etc.
- 10% discount in the cafés and bookshops of the Museums

How do I get a MIC Card?

- Visit miccard.roma.it to buy a new digital MIC card. Using your computer browser will be useful to translate the website.
- When registering, select that you have temporary domicile in Rome, or "AVERE DOMICILIO TEMPORANEO A ROMA O NELLA CITTÀ METROPOLITANA DI ROMA."
- After creating your account and paying, you will be emailed your digital MIC card.

I have my card, how do I use it?

- Call 060608 and speak to an English-speaking ticket representative to book tickets, or show your digital MIC card at the ticket booth of your selected museum.
